

Farewell from Sarah!

In the end I grew attached to community life and have found it quite a challenge to adjust to life in a small community of two.

Mostly I miss -

Samara's calm

Matt's taunts

Asher's wit

Shobie's love

Luffy's spatial awareness and practical edge

Renee's healthy input into our tummies

& Ant's amazing ability to do business with such a wide range of players!!

The IHH is an amazing example of faith in action. It has shaped what I now value and hold dear. It has given me a whole new perspective on living. Luckily I'm still around to help out.
